

Institute of Analytical Chemistry of the Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava

In cooperation with the Slovak Chemical Society and with Slovak National Accreditation Service organize XV. International Conference

Present State and Perspectives of Analytical Chemistry in Practise

from 21st to 24th Jun 2022 in Bratislava

The event will be held to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the Institute of Analytical Chemistry establishment

under the auspices of the dean FCHPT STU Prof. Eng. Anton Gatial, DrSc.

CONFERENCE ORIENTATION

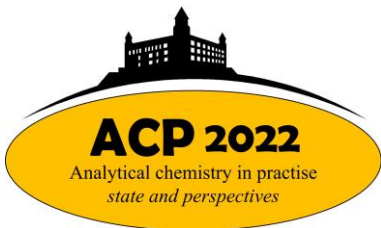

The conference aims to provide news in trends of analytical methods as well as in the evaluation of analytical chemical measurements results.

The conference is a place to share the experiences of researchers in different areas of analytical testing at universities and research laboratories.

ACP 2022 is a tool to increase the qualification of the research staff of analytical laboratories and particularly accredited testing laboratories.
